

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

In re:           THOMAS, James & Diane
Debtor(s)

Case No.       08-00916

NOTICE

The following plan proposed by the debtor contains provisions which may significantly affect your rights. If you need additional information to determine how your rights might be affected you may attend the meeting of creditors, obtain copies of schedules and statement of affairs from the court's website at www.waeb.uscourts.gov, or seek the advice of an attorney.

A creditor who wishes to oppose the plan may do so by filing a timely objection to the plan. Any objection must be in writing, filed with the court and served upon the debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), and the Chapter 13 trustee within twenty-five (25) days following service of the plan or within five (5) days following the conclusion of the meeting of creditors, whichever is later. The provisions of the confirmed plan will bind the debtor and each creditor, whether or not they have filed a proof of claim.

A proof of claim must be filed by or on behalf of each creditor, including secured creditors, in order for the creditor to be eligible to be paid by the Trustee. The Trustee will treat the amount stated on the filed proof of claim as the amount of a creditor's claim unless otherwise determined by order of the court. See the notice of commencement of case for the claims bar date, the date by which a proof of claim must be filed in order to be treated as timely filed.

Certain pre-confirmation distributions are authorized to be made by the trustee based on provisions in the plan. Once the plan is confirmed, the trustee will make payments based only on the proof of claim. Where no proof of claim is filed, no further distributions will be made.
